NOTE: This information changes frequently and is considered reliable, but, is sometimes not 100% accurate for various reasons...but we try! Also, if you are interested in seeing, buying or discussing what you have to do to buy one of these, please call or email me and request the info-sheet that spells it out. Like this list, it's free and comes without any obligation, commitment, promise or agreement on your part (or mine!). It's just a free-exchange of information. Of course, I would like to explore the possibility of working with you to buy one of these (or sell a home you already own), as I am a professional, full-time broker, still working through this market which has proven so tough for so many people including homeowners, homebuyers and those in the real estate industry. I also am happy to share my thoughts, ideas, ruminations and brainstorm on current market conditions with you...again, as a free-exchange of information. Call or email me anytime.☺
